The open is sure to be to your liking whilst maintaining incredible uniqueness. You choose the colors and the furnishings all the way down to the type of cushioning. One thing is clear: you're in possession of something one-of-a-kind. An Open yacht is always a custom yacht.

... and every night.

Welcome home. The more you sail, the more you'll feel at home in the Open – even if someone, who has never been aboard, does not believe you. The Open offers magnificent, king-sized living quarters with a unique rainfall type shower. Even here you are in control, specifying the details, the wood and the fabrics.

The Open will open up your mind. Maybe you won't be taking your next journey under sail, but rather with your new Fjord.
