SUNSEEKER PORTOFINO 48

STYLE: SPORTS CRUISER

ACCOMMODATION: UP TO 4 GUESTS

PERFORMANCE: UP TO 30 KNOTS

A very smart surrogate for the preceding Portofino 47, this newcomer – with just a smidgeon extra in length – has achieved a remarkable step up in interior plan. Where once there was the classic main suite in the bow and a cross-beam twin cabin aft of the saloon, the Portofino 48 has a remarkable full-beam owner's suite aft, with huge windows to either side, while forward there's a clever new VIP suite in which the central double bed cunningly swings apart to create twin single berths for a family or just-friends combination.

The central saloon with mostly cupboard-concealed galley sits at the heart of the accommodation and shares the same high-style interior design detailing with mix of grain, bold lacquers and deep glass options reflected in the sleeping cabins and the handsomely fitted en suites.

So where has the extra space come from? Sunseeker has again innovated with a new take on design that matches optimisation of accommodation without undue effect on performance which derives, here, from a choice of twin props or pod drives which make manoeuvring so simple. Point the joystick where you want to park and the Portofino virtually follows that line.

SUNSEEKER PORTOFINO 48

Externally, the profile is sleek with a long expanse of foredeck topped by cantilevering sunpads that incline lazars for an easier view of the panorama. Looking back, the cockpit screen rises fairly well aft in a smooth and neatly engineered radius, behind which is found an electronically well supported helm station with companion as well as pilot seating, a wetbar and full dining arrangement. And a trademark sunpad extends slightly over the submersible bathing platform that doubles as tender slip.

SUNSEEKER PORTOFINO 48

42

There's the choice of open or hard top versions, the former with bimini and tonneau cover, the latter with rigid sliding section to open or close according to shade requirements or weather conditions.

A new Portofino but, as ever, for all occasions.
